
—FUNERAL AT KINKORA —

The funeral of the late T. A. McIvor took place at Kinkora on Friday morning from the funeral home of P. A. Monaghan to St. Malachi Church where the Requiem High Mass was celebrated by Rev. J. A. Murphy. The funeral was perhaps one of the largest ever held in the vicinity, friends and relatives from all sections of the country attending to pay their last respects. The pall bearers who bore the remains from the church to their last resting place were six nephews of the deceased. Ollie McCarville, Ray Johnston, Percy Murphy, Aden McIvor, Hugh John McIvor, Harold Mulligan. The pall bearers in Summerside who accompanied the body from the residence to the train were Donald McPherson, Everett Kelly, Fonce Brown, Lorne Driscoll, T. L. Compton and Lewis Sherry. S.
