

LYNN MAN'S WILL GIVES HOUSE TENURE TO WOMAN

SALEM, March 26—Directing that there never shall be a foreclosure of a mortgage he held on a house owned by a Chelsea woman, Lena Burns, while she is the holder of the deed, the will of Frank H. McKenna, 257 Chatham st, Lynn, proprietor of a paint business, was filed today in the Probate Court.

All of McKenna's property was left to his seven children, Miss Margaret C. McKenna, Miss Dorothea McKenna, Ernest McKenna, Walter M. McKenna, and Francis H. McKenna Jr, all of Lynn, and Arthur J. McKenna of Beverly, and Joseph McKenna of Saginaw, Mich. The merchant was a widower. His real estate was given outright to the children, but his personal property was left in trust for them.

Francis Hugh McKENNA born 22 Sep 1872 Prince Edward Island,
