AL-PIONEER

Deighan Family Reunion Held

An informal family reunion was held at the Penderosa Beach Cottages in Darnley, recently when members of the Deighan family from Prince Edward Island met with members of the Deighan family from New York, and Massachusetts. All are descendants of William Deighan who came from Ireland in 1830. He had four sons, William, Frank, Peter, and John Joseph. John Joseph moved to New York, and its these descendants who visited recently. Also present at the reunion, were Frank's three sons, Cecil, Wallace, and Arnold Deighan all of Summerside, and Peter's son Charlie, formerly of Freetown and now of Summerside. Shown back row left,
