

Favreau,
Edward Charles, Sr.

91, of New Hope (formerly of West Roxbury and Norwood, Massachusetts) died peacefully at St. Therese Nursing Home on Wednesday, Sept. 28, 2011.

Preceded in death by his beloved wife and best friend, Eileen (McIver-Ford); his parents, Edward and Anna (Turgeon); brother, Richard and sisters, Beatrice Luby, Marcella Farrell and Ann Griffen. Survived by children, Mary Katherine Jackson-Ivory, Minneapolis, Edward Charles III, (Janie), Florida, Ellen Marie, New Hope, Lisa Ann Rice (David), Brooklyn Park and Daniel Ford, Zimmerman. He is also survived by five grandchildren, and four great-grandsons.

Ed was born on January 5th and was brought into the world by his father Edward Sr., during the "Great Blizzard" of 1920. He served in the U.S. Navy in the South Pacific as a Mechanics Mate-3rd Class on the U.S.S. Seminole from 1942-1944. He met his beautiful and wonderful Eileen at the Knights of Columbus Club in Boston while in military training and were married on June 7, 1947. It was a love affair that spanned 61 years of love, honor, respect and true friendship. He was a faithful and loving husband and father who lived every day to it's fullest. He was a member of the Knights of Columbus, Crystal and the Sears Retirement Club of Minneapolis. Edward will be greatly missed by all who knew him.

Mass of Christian Burial 11 am Monday at the Church of St. Raphael, 7301 Bass Lake Rd., Crystal. Interment Ft. Snelling. Visitation Sunday (TODAY), 4-7 pm at Gearty-Delmore Robbinsdale Chapel, 3888 W. Broadway and Monday at church one hour before Mass.

Gearty-Delmore 763-537-4511

Obituary for Edward Charles Favreau (Aged 91)

Clipped By:

grroberts136

Tue, Dec 31, 2019