

couple will be at home at 324 Second avenue S.

Holy Name church, Eleventh avenue and Thirty-seventh street, was the setting for the marriage Thursday morning of Miss Ruth McCormack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Neil J. McCormack, 3821 Portland avenue S. and Charles W. McIver of Vancouver, B. C. The ceremony took place at 9 o'clock in the presence of relatives and intimate friends of the family.

Miss Helen McCormack, the bride's sister, was the maid of honor and only attendant. She was gowned in a straight line dress of light blue chiffon over flesh colored satin and carried a shower bouquet of Killarney pink roses.

White georgette over white flat crepe, fashioned on simple lines with cording outlined with pearls, was worn by the bride, who entered on the arm of her father. Appliqued roses dotted the skirt at intervals and she wore an embroidered tulle veil. Her bouquet was of bride roses and bouvardia.

Jack Pottratz served as best man for the bridegroom. Lewis Klebba gave several solos accompanied by the church organist.

Twenty-four guests were present at the wedding breakfast which was held at the home of the bride's parents immediately after the ceremony.

A wedding tour through the cities of Duluth, Grand Forks, Jasper Park in Alberta, Prince Rupert and Vancouver will precede the arrival of the young couple at Prince Edward Isle where they will be at home after Oct. 1.

Marriage of McCormack / McIver

Clipped By:

michellemciver

Wed, Dec 22,
2021