

AWARDS—Carl Livingston presents pins to Julia Jordan, left, and Mercedes Juergens, two of the honored guests at Livingston Brothers Ten and Twenty Year Club breakfast yesterday. Mrs. Jordan has been with the firm twenty years and Miss Juergens for ten.

FIRM VETERANS GIVEN AWARDS

Livingston Bros. presented gold and diamond pins to new members of its Ten-and-Twenty-Year Club at an annual breakfast party in the Italian Room of the Hotel St. Francis yesterday.

Honored for twenty years of service with the firm were Caroline Barry, Josephine Ziffra and Julia Jordan.

Ten year club initiates were Frances Sullivan, art director, and Mercedes Juergens.

The firm, founded in 1876, counts some two-thirds of its organization as having been with it more than ten and twenty years. A third call themselves the "Oldtimers" of over thirty years at Livingston's.

Two "new" members of the firm, each a fourth generation to join, were introduced at the breakfast by Carl Livingston Sr., master of ceremonies.

They were 17 months old Jeff Livingston, great-grandson of

Hoover 25 Years As Chief of FBI

WASHINGTON, May 10. — (INS)—Today is Edgar J. Hoover's twenty-sixth anniversary as director of the FBI but the nation's number one G-man observed it on a strictly business-as-usual basis.

the founder, David Livingston, and eight months old "Chips" Livingston, a great-grandson of one of the original founders, Samuel Livingston. "Chips" is the son of Carl Livingston Jr., himself a third generation member of the firm.

ADVERTISEMENT

FRIENDLY

Anglo California National Bank offers sound, friendly help to borrowers.

Out-of-Town

DIERKS & CO. service is no alone. We will make all arrangements by Air, Rail or Private Car to United States.

WE ARRANGE many funeral services. And we will go any motor without additional charge.

Complete Service

$68 $125 $185 $225 $300

A 74 year tradition

Mercedes Juergens receives ten year club pin at Livingston Bros.

Clipped By:

michellemciver
Wed, Jul 14, 2021