

MAINE STUDENTS AT GEORGETOWN

Bangor, Caribou and Eastport Boys
Prominent in Law School Affairs

In recent editions of the Washington Post and The Evening Star appears the following:

"The Georgetown Junior Law Prom, to be held the evening of February 9 in the New Willard ballroom, is to be the most elaborate social affair ever given by any student body in Washington. From 10 o'clock in the evening until 3 o'clock in the morning there will be no cessation of the music, which will be furnished by the Myer Davis orchestra and Le Paradais Band. A supper is to be served and handsome favors will be presented to the women guests.

"Under the direction of Donald C. O'Regan of Maine, chairman in charge, the committees are already at work. Mr. O'Regan has announced the following student committee."

Then follow the names of the members of the committees, which includes representatives of thirty-six states. Gerald P. Collins of Bangor is a member of the audit committee and Edward B. Eldridge of Eastport is a member of the arrangement committee.

Donald C. O'Regan of Maine, chairman of the prom committee, is a graduate of Caribou high school and attended the University of Maine in 1919-20 and 1920-21. Mr. O'Regan at present has a position with the United States Shipping Board and is a junior at the Law School of Georgetown University. His selection as chairman was a very popular one and under his direction the Prom promises to be a real success.
