

Donald O'Regan Nominated Judge Caribou Court

Thirty Other Nominations
Are Announced by Gov.
Gardiner.

STATE HOUSE, Augusta, Sept. 14—(AP)—Donald C. O'Regan of Caribou was today nominated judge of the Caribou municipal court by Governor Gardiner. He succeeds Judge Joseph E. Hill.

The thirty other nominations posted were: Recorder Northern Aroostook municipal court, Ambrose Albert, Madawaska; member board of directors Maine Institution for the Blind, Alfred W. Haskell, Portland; director of Androscoggin Lake Dam, W.
Scott Libbey, Lewiston; commissioner of Penobscot boom, Owen W. Madden, Milford; trial justice, E. Everett Davis, Burnham; medical examiner, William E. Needleman, Portland; public administrator, Frank H. Ingraham, Rockland; probation officer, Ashley A. Smith, Bangor; licensed detective, Edward J. Thibodeau, Lisbon; state humane agent, Alton Ames, Wiscasset; 14 notaries public; and six justices of the peace.

Clipped By:

michellemciver
Thu, Aug 20, 2020