

In any congregation of mothers, Mrs. R. A. Flora of Caribou is certainly entitled to raise her head proudly high. She has four lads in the service of the nation's armed forces.

Mrs. Flora's own son by a former marriage, Dr. Richard W. Sweetser, is now on active duty overseas. He

Peter Sweetser William Flora

Burnham Peterson Douglas O'Regan

is a graduate of Georgetown college and Georgetown Medical school.

An adopted son, William Richard Flora, a graduate of the University of Maine, has just enlisted and is at Chanute Field, Ill., after working for eight months in the chemical department of the Pratt and Whitney works at Hartford, Conn.

Dr. S. Burnham Peterson, the third boy in Mrs. Flora's brood, attended the University of Maine and Long Island university, before graduating from the Flint Institute of Podiatry. He is stationed at Camp Pickett, Va.

Still a fourth Flora boy, Douglas O'Regan, who has made his home with Mr. and Mrs. Flora since his own parents were burned to death many years ago, is at Fort Belvoir, Virginia. He is a graduate of Bryant and Stratton Business school and Northeastern Business college.

Clipped By:

michellemciver
Thu, Sep 17, 2020