

J. Douglas O'Regan, 36, technician 5th-grade, U. S. Army, whose death occurred Thursday, July 1, at Camp Beauregard, La., was well known in Caribou. After the death of his father and mother in 1918, he made his home with his aunt, Mrs. Mabel Flora, for a number of years. He was graduated from the Caribou High school and Bryant-Stratton Business college in Boston. Surviving besides two sisters and brother are a grandmother, Mrs. P. J. Powers, Caribou; two aunts, Mrs. Ethel Roberts, and Mrs. Mabel Flora, both of this town, and other relatives in Grand Falls, N. B.

Clipped By:

michellemciver
Thu, Sep 17, 2020