SEABROOK — Thomas H. D'Ovidio, 70, of Seabrook, died Thursday, Dec. 27, 2012 at Oceanside Skilled Nursing & Rehabilitation in Hampton.

Tom was born Aug. 25, 1942 in Lynn, Mass., the son of the late Primo and Ida (Pascucci) D'Ovidio, where he was raised and attended schools.

Tom served with the U.S. Army Reserves and enjoyed a career as a draftsman until taking an early retirement. Tom enjoyed classic cars and loved to drive the 1960 Corvette he restored many years ago.

He is survived by his wife Geraldine (McGougan) D'Ovidio, with whom he shared 47 years of marriage, as well as a son, James T. of Seabrook, a daughter Lisa and her husband James of Raymond, and two wonderful grandchildren.

Private services will be held at the convenience of the family. Arrangements were by the Remick & Gendron Funeral Home-Crematory, Hampton. To sign an on line guestbook, visit www.RemickGendron.com.
