

| | |
|--|--|
|  |  |
| EDWARD J. McMAHON Republican Edward J. McMahon of 75 Dauntless La., Republican, and Joseph I. Jacques of 79 Girard Ave., Democrat, are candidates for the State House of Representatives from Hartford. Both are lawyers and veterans of World War II, and both are seeking public office for the first time. McMahon, who served as a captain in the 101st Airborne Division in Europe, holds the Silver and Bronze stars. He is a graduate of Hartford Public High School and Georgetown University. He received his law degree from Cornell University and was admitted to the Connecticut Bar in 1949. Until September of this year, he opened a law office at 635 Main St., McMahon was associated with | JOSEPH I. JACQUES Democrat Atty. Milton Koskoff in Plainville. Active in fraternal and veterans' groups, McMahon is president of the Young Republicans. He is married and has one son. Jacques, a resident of Hartford since 1941, served more than three years with the Navy in the Pacific area during World War II. He is a graduate of Boys' High School, Van Buren, Me., attended Connecticut Teachers College, New Britain, and received his law degree from the University of Detroit. He was admitted to the state bar last January and has been associated with Judge John J. Bracken and Atty. Frank R. Odum at 945 Asylum Ave. Jacques, who is single, lives with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Jacques. |

Clipped By:
michellemciver
Sat, Oct 16, 2021