

Farmington Avenue, West Hartford, when they return.

Lennon-Malone.
The wedding of Miss Louise Malone, daughter of Mr. John H. Malone, full street, became the bride last Sunday of Mr. Albert Frank Lennon of Branford, Me., and Mr. Clarence Lennon of Sargent Street.

Rev. Thomas J. McNamara officiated at the 10 a. m. ceremony in Our Lady of Sorrows Church. Miss Marcella McInnes was organist and Miss Bernadette Drain, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white slipper satin gown designed with a V-neckline and a short, full skirt with panels of lace falling into a long circular train, and her three-fingered fingertip veil was caught to a pale bouquet of matching chrysanthemum. She carried a bridal bouquet of eschscholias.

Miss Lynne Briggs of Westland Avenue, West Hartford, was maid of honor. Mr. James A. Baxter of Springfield, Mass., was best man for Mr. Lennon. Ushers were Mr. John H. Malone, Jr., of Farmington Avenue, New Britain, and Mr. Leo S. Putnam of North Hill Road, Westover Field.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the Elm Tree Inn in Farmington. When the couple left for Canada, the bride was attended in a taupe gabardine suit with lizard accessories and a gold helmet-crowned hat. Mr. and Mrs. Lennon will live at 37 Merrill Street since December 5.

Mr. Lennon, a graduate of William Hall High School, is employed at Ives and Brantstreet, Inc. Mr. Lennon was graduated from Farmington High School and attended American International College, Springfield, Mass. During the war he served for two and one-half years with the Army Air Forces, and is now with the Universal Commercial Investment Trust Company.

Arno-Battalio.
The wedding of Miss Marie Catherine Battalio, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Christopher Battalio of Park Road, West Hartford, to Mr. C. Peter Arno, Jr., son of Mrs. Robert L. Griggs of Chawvaw Avenue, West Hartford, took place Saturday at 11 a. m. at the Church of St. Mark the Evangelist. Rev. Francis Dwyer officiated.

The bride's father gave her in marriage, and Miss Terry DeFranco was maid of honor. The best man was Mr. Richard Monnich. The bride wore a dress of candlelight satin which had a lace-trimmed neckline. The full skirt had a train, and the sleeves, also long, were trimmed at the wrist with lace. She wore a studded lace helmet from which fell a full-length veil of Chantilly lace. Her bouquet was of white roses. Miss DeFranco wore pinkish blue taffeta, made full-skirted with cap sleeves and a low, round neckline. Her taffeta helmet was of a similar shade and was trimmed with small white pompons. She carried the same kind of flower in her bouquet.

The reception was held at the Battalio home, after which Mr. and Mrs. Arno left for the South. The bride selects a hunter green wool suit for travel. They will live at 29 Chawvaw Avenue, West Hartford, in the future.

The bride attended Harvard Art School. Both Mr. and Mrs. Arno are alumni of William Hall High School. Mr. Arno was a former corporal in the United States Marine Corps.

Spink-Jacques.
The wedding of Miss Mary Olga Jacques, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Jacques of Grand Avenue, and Mr. Louis V. Spink, who lives with his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. John Kolpa in Calville, took place November 19 at 9 a. m. in St. Joseph's Cathedral. Rev. Francis O'Neil performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride had as her maid of honor her sister, Miss Pauline Jacques, and as bridesmaid, Miss Rose Thome of Laurel Street. Mr. Harvey Spink was best man. Ushers were Mr. Herbert Choulette of Laurel Street and Mr. Lloyd J. and Mr. Harold L. Jacques.

The bride's gown of white satin was fashioned with a sheer yoke, outlined in front panels, a bouffant bodice and full skirt trimmed with long train. A crown of seed pearls held in place her fingertip length veil bordered in lace, and she carried a properbook, topped with white orchids.

A reception followed at the Lighthouse Inn. For traveling, the bride wore a gray suit and accessories.

Mr. Spink is a graduate of Sacred Heart Girls High School and Van Buren High School and is employed as a machinist.

Hadassah Study Group.
The Study Group of the Business and Professional Division of Hadassah will meet this evening, at 8 o'clock at the Jotta Bond. Mr. Joseph Hurwitz will review the book, "Puritan and Puritanism," by Arthur Koestler. All members are invited.

Clipped By:
michellemciver
Sun, Oct 24, 2021