

Business

BRAE Corp. names new officers

Texido

Briscoe

William J. Texido, president and chief executive officer of BRAE Corp., has been elected chairman of the board of the San Francisco-based firm, parent corporation of American Sign & Indicator Corp. in Spokane.

Texido retains the title of chief executive officer. He succeeds Edward L. Scarff, who remains chairman of the executive committee and a member of the board.

Lawrence W. Briscoe, executive vice president, has been named president and chief operating officer.

BRAE, a diversified manufacturing, leasing and transportation services company, owns 85 percent of the stock of AS&I. BRAE recently has been ranked nationally by three magazines as one of the country's fastest-growing corporations.

Texido, 48, founded BRAE in 1977 and assumed the post of president. Briscoe joined BRAE at the same time as vice president-finance, and was promoted to executive vice president in 1981.

Clipped By:

michellemciver
Sat, Sep 19, 2020