Other Notes

Sister M. Leonore McCarville died at St. Mary's Hospital, Minneapolis, Minn., on the eighth day of October, nineteen hundred eleven, in the thirty-seventh year of her age and the twelfth of her religious life.

In the death of our dear Sister Leonore the Community lost a good, fervent religious and a most conscientious teacher. In gratitude to God for her holy vocation, her sole ambition was to serve Him well and faithfully. Always ready and willing to oblige others, she sought no favors for herself.

Sister had not been well for a few years, but she bore her sufferings so patiently and quietly that the serious nature of her illness was not known until shortly before her death. Peacefully as she had lived she passed out of this world into the next.

We trust that she now fully realizes these words of holy scripture: "For that which is present and momentary and light of our tribulation worketh for us above measure exceedingly an immense weight of glory."
